

The background is a warm, golden-yellow color with intricate, faint mandala patterns. On the left, there are hanging decorative elements: a string of small gold dots, a gold flower, a lit diya, another gold flower, and another lit diya. The right side features a blurred image of a large, ornate metal lantern and several lit diyas, with soft bokeh light effects. In the foreground, there are vibrant orange marigold flowers, scattered pink rose petals, and a piece of purple fabric with a gold floral pattern.
